W'55 BOARD OF CONTROL

Guiding the cantie clans through the first semester of the 1954-1955 school year was the big task of the Winter '55 Board of Control.

Wisely handling the duties of chief executive was President John Klein. Sandy Walters, secretary, accurately recorded the minutes of all meetings. Keeping a watchful eye on the money, the ever vigilant Linda Kendrick acted as treasurer. Boys' President Bob Smith and Girls' President Lynne Copeland headed the fellas and gals as the Wolves enjoyed the activities of the first semester. Among these were the programs organized by Commissioner of Assemblies Gary Huffaker. Peaches Saks, commissioner of publicity, undertook to see that all loyal Wolves were informed about festivities. Commissioner of Publications Jay Shafran represented the Mirror, the Crimson and Gray, and the Winged Pen. Responsible for much of the fun and recreation during the year was Commissioner of Social Activities Mary Heacock. Of course, school life was not all play. Scholars became members of the California Scholarship Federation, whose local chapter was directed by Commissioner of Scholarship Mickey Miller. The students cooperated with Commissioner of Halls and Grounds Jim Kennedy in cleaning the campus. Keeping service records in good order was the unceasing occupation of Commissioner of School Service Claudia McCue. Planning fire drills and other safety measures was the responsibility of Jerry Quintana, commissioner of safety. Marlene Swartz represented the many clubs. Harvey Allen held the office of Head Yell Leader. The Board is indebted to their sponsor, Miss Keough, for her guidance and advice.

S'55 BOARD OF CONTROL

With a blithe spirit and under the direction of its president, George Young, the Summer '55 Board of Control began its duties. The lads and lassies of the student body were headed by Jim Dawson and Marlene Swartz, respectively. Scurrying from place to place with pencil and pad was Secretary Peaches Saks. Treasurer Claudia McCue was busy keeping track of every elusive nickel and dime of school funds. Commissioner of Safety Ted Marmor was always on the alert for any hazards around the campus. The new commissioner of halls and grounds, Dick Somers, was always to be found with his magnifying glass scanning the ground for paper.

Among the more enjoyable moments of school life were the assemblies, planned and organized by the commissioner of assemblies, Dave Oatey. Constantly scanning the School Service file was the commissioner of school service, Barbara Jones. Found in the whirl of extra-curricular activities around school was Commissioner of Social Activities Carla Hoffman. Of course publications played an important role in the life of all students. The Mirror, the Annual, and the Winged Pen had their views expressed by the commissioner of publications, Ed Tolmas. Most of the announcements of school activities were made through the efforts of Jane Whitmore, the commissioner of publicity. Clubs achieved representation through Commissioner of Clubs Carol McKanna. Lynn Willen acted as commissioner of scholarship, and proved worthy of her office. Jim Stephens, head yell leader, played an important role in board functions and activities. Miss Keough again served as sponsor. The Board of Control added much to the smooth functioning of school business.

GIRLS' ACTIVITY BOARD

Feminine chieftains o'er the Girls' Student Body, the Girls' Activity Board, worked very hard under the guidance of Mrs. Ward to plan and direct the mony activities that were enjoyed by the lasses o' Van Nuys High School.

Starting off each new semester in a delightful fashion the Board presented an Assembly to acquaint the girls with their officers and the functions of its members. Continuing the year's activities the girls honored their mothers at a Mother-Daughter Dessert which was a tremendous success. At this affair the entertainment was performed by the Vanettes and talented lasses o' the student body. Once each year the Board is instrumental in organizing Girls' Week. At this time lasses of upper grades are given an opportunity to visit various businesses and to assist in professional capacities in the community; to direct the school and serve as principal, vice-principal, registrar, librarian, and teachers; and to join into mony activities thegither. To promote neatness and poise, the Good Grooming Contest was organized. All girls in the student body who did not hold any official position were eligible to participate. Each month a lass was selected by the Board to represent her grade in this contest. Bringing to a close the functions o' the year the May Day Festival was presented for which a queen and her court were chosen to reign o'er the events o' the celebration. Leading the girls through their mony undertakings were the enthusiastic presidents Lynne Copeland and Marlene Swartz.

BOYS' ACTIVITY BOARD

Maintaining a busy schedule all year by coordinating the various activities of the boys o' Van Nuys High was the function of the Boys' Activity Board, under the guidance of Mr. Miles. Activities included sponsoring boys' assemblies both semesters, choosing participants for Boys' Week, and supervising the auto show presented by the school in the spring semester.

Rapping the gavel were Boys' Student Body Presidents Bob Smith and Jim Dawson; who were assisted by Boys' Vice-Presidents Ted Marmor and Cliff Itomitsu; and Secretary-Treasurers Jerry Richardson and Bob Helmers. Other members of the board were Jerry Quintana and Ted Marmor, Safety Club; Ray Paolucci and Ray Hall, Lettermen; Bob McDill and John Vincent, Key Club; Gary Grey and Jerry Quintana, Knights; Ron Lachman and Arleen Martin, Glee Club; Jim Burns and Bud Curly, F.F.A.; Merrit Walls, R.O.T.C.; Dick Bowers and Quiqui Graham, Squires; Harvey Allan and Jim Stephens, head yell leaders.

The Boys' Activity Board is to be congratulated for its efforts and accomplishments on behalf o' the boys of Van Nuys High School.

They Gave Their Service o'er

Wi' true Caledonian canniness, the Representative Council convened, in a genuinely democratic spirit, to express the views of their fellow clansmen in their second period classes. These ambitious lads and lasses met with the Board of Control from time to time throughout the year to discuss suggestions from the student body and to vote on regulations and activities for the benefit of the entire school. Under the leadership of John Klein and George Young, the council offered a splendid example of representative government in action.

ATHENIAN CLASS

Clan S'55 is proud o' having selected the name, Athenian, to represent its royal members. Athens, the capital of Greece, is famed for its ancient art, literature, and architecture. The Athenian class in turn will long be known for its scholarship, leadership, and fine character. Although it is the largest class to graduate from Van Nuys High School, its members hae striven for quality, nae quantity. Mony individuals hae brought fame and honor to their name, but more memorable is the way in which they worked as a group to make Van Nuys proud o' them. The leadership offered by outstanding officers, combined wi' the supervision of Mr. John McCaffrey, Mr. Bill Kroot, and Mrs. Janis Bergstrom, the class sponsors, has served to make it easier to accomplish their mony goals. The Athenians, S'55, bid Van Nuys hail and farewell!

Ephebians

To become an Ephebian is the highest honor that can be attained by a senior at Van Nuys High School. The first Ephebian Society was founded mony centuries ago by a few Greek men who were outstanding in leadership, scholarship and character. The present day Ephebian Society is carried on by people wi' the same distinctive qualities as those o' the original founders. Each year at Van Nuys High School the graduating class in conjunction wi' the faculty selects its outstanding members to represent them in this Society. The students who hae become Ephebians realize they hae been given an opportunity to serve their fellow man and their community, and work very hard to be worthy o' the honor. They know they have been chosen because they have been leaders o' their class, have been of great service to their school, and have upheld superior scholarship. Their merit is respected by the class which has helped them achieve this very high honor.

ATHENIAN RECOGNITION DAY

This year in a solemn program the noble Imperial clan recognized the Athenians as the rising royalty. The auditorium made a handsome picture wi' the dark blue of the Imperial sweaters serving as a background for the newly received Athenian sweaters of sea foam green. Gary Kent challenged the Athenians to the responsibilities of upholding the traditions of Van Nuys High School; the challenge was accepted by George Young. The meaning o' the class emblem was then explained by Dud Lang and the class song was sung. The day will long be remembered for it inspired the Athenians to assume class leadership and maintain high academic and social standards.

Festival

ATHENIAN ACTIVITY DAY

Ay, gay was the Festival of the Gods which took the Athenians and their guests to Athens, the capital of Greece. Through the combined efforts of Eleanor Loomis, producer, Pete Bray, director, and all the members of the cast and committees, an unusual and humorous Activity Day was presented. The citizens of Athens and the delegates from foreign lands, Hajji Baba, Za Za La Mour, Groucho the Goucho, and the Queen of Sheba were anticipating the coming of the gods, Venus, Mercury, Apollo, Hercules, Bacchus, and Zeus.

In an ancient setting all dignitaries were entertained by singers Janis Paleno and Rochelle Diamond. A ballet of boys, a pantomime, a modern combo, and a classical ensemble added to the humor and the enjoyment. Before the festivities of the Grecian Production all joined to partake of a feast of the mortals. The singing of the class song rounded out the activities which took place during the class periods. Later that evening, the Athenians were honored at a dance which increased the magnitude of the day's fond remembrances.

Imperial Coronation Ball

A CORONATION FOR A NOBLE LAD AND LASS!

Replacing their kilts and tartans for sharp tuxedoes male guests escorted fluffily gowned lasses to an evening o' music and festivity. Upon entering the McKinley Home Auditorium the royal clansmen were received into "The Imperial Courtroom" which was lined with marble pillars. Stars sparkled under a canopy of blue, white and gold streamers. In this Imperial setting Claude Gordon and his fourteen-piece dance band provided the gay melodies.

Highlighting the evening was the guest appearance of Miss Gale Storm, who performed the coronation rites for King Gary Kent and Queen Sandy Walters. Attending their highnesses were princesses L. Pankratz, L. Copeland, J. Mollett, L. Kendrick, B. Riley, M. Truxall, and princes K. Smith, L. Shuttleworth, J. Klein, R. Lachman, and B. Smith.

"Good Night Sweetheart" concluded the gaiety and sent a merry group on their way.

Clan Imperial tipped their tam o'shanters in appreciation to their sponsors, Mr. Foster and Miss Feutz. Senior Bee President John Klein, Vice-President Harvey Allen, Secretary Mary Martz, and Treasurer Gary Kent sounded the bagpipes to introduce their class to the school. Upon receiving their royal blue sweaters they paraded around the campus to complete the introduction.

Other festivities filled the Senior Aye year with Gary Kent presiding o'er the class. Mary Martz served in the capacity of vice-president; Patricia Heinz and Lillian Pankratz shared the secretarial job, while financial matters were taken care of by Treasurer Claudia Webb. Among the gay remembrances was that of the Activity Day program which included a variety of songs, dances, and comedies at Hernando's "Imperial Hideaway". After the show came the delicious Senior Luncheon, and then the noble lads escorted their fair lasses to the Activity Day Dance. Climaxing the activities, which included the long anticipated Candlelight Supper and the memorable Senior Prom, was the Imperial Graduation.

SCHOLARSHIP SOCIETY

Wi' Ken

By continued encouragement towards scholastic achievement the Senior Scholarship Society upheld its motto of "Scholarship for Service". Activities o' the year were highlighted by maintenance o' the college catalogue file and by entertaining and informative talks given to the club by guest speakers. The invited authorities helped everyone to understand the opportunities offered by colleges and universities. Mony individual students were assisted with the planning o' their future careers.

Included in the traditional social affairs were the party held in January and the June barbecue.

PHILOMATHEANS

In keeping wi' the achievements of past semesters the Philomatheans, the B10 scholarship organization, set new and higher standards as they undertook their annual service projects. One o' the main goals of the club was to uphold high scholarship, in order to become members of the Senior Scholarship Society in the A10 semester. The desirability of this aim was made significant by holding meetings and several activities wi' the advanced group. Guest speakers from the faculty and representatives of other professions contributed to the enjoyment o' their gatherings.

The Philomatheans boasted a membership of sixty and was headed by Ruth Felt in the fall semester and by Zeke Perlo in the spring. The students were assisted by their helpful advisor, Mrs. Stewart.

KNIGHTS

That "an honest man is king o' men" is well illustrated by each o' the Van Nuys High Knights as they maintain high standards of achievement and conduct. Among the group are honored boys from various phases o' school life bound thegither by a common desire to serve to their fullest capacity. At the completion of the junior year, those boys who hae put forth effort on behalf o' the school and shown qualities of leadership are eligible to become members. The administration, faculty, and mony student groups found occasion during the year to rely on the assistance of the Knights. Everyone was consistently gratified with the fine manner in which the boys discharged their duties. Presiding officer in the fall months was Gary Gray, who was succeeded by Jerry Quintana in the spring. Mr. Comerford continued to act as advisor to the group.

LADIES

There is nae finer lady than those in the Ladies organization o' Van Nuys High. These are the girls who as a result o' their ceaseless efforts, have attained the highest possible honor. The girls accepted for membership hae shown meritorious accomplishment in scholarship and evidenced interest in school activities by devotion of much time and effort. The variety o' their services is by nae means ended upon achieving the goal of membership. As a group, the girls are ever ready to offer their assistance in all school affairs and to accept the responsibilities of carrying out plans for social functions.

To all those in attendance, the traditional social affairs o' each semester, the installation dinner, held this year at the San Fernando Valley Country Club, and the "Ladies Social", were memorable occasions.

Mrs. Kirby directed the club, wi' able student assistance from Rosemary Rio and Betsy Fullerton during the fall months, and from Susie Mathers and Phoebe Kassebaum in the spring semester.

SAFETY CLUB

Stalwart lads of the eleventh and twelfth grades carried the responsibilities o' maintaining safe conditions o'er the glen by serving on the Safety Committee. They were headed by Jerry Quintana in the fall semester and Ted Marmor in the spring months.

Everyone appreciated their assistance in making sure the buildings were evacuated during drills, in maintaining a fire and stretcher crew at the time of yellow alerts, and in upholding general safety principles at all times. To encourage every day safety practice, the committee sponsored an assembly by the Fire Department which illustrated remedies for common violations of safety practice. Direction o' all activities was rendered by Mr. McClintock.

SQUIRES

"With royal heart firm and true", the Squires o' Van Nuys were able to earn for themsels the place of one of the most revered clubs on the campus. The aim o' this group is to give any interested boy who is in his junior year an opportunity to serve and a chance for experience in leadership. One o' their most highly appreciated projects was the hall patrol. They, also, undertook such projects as parking cars at the Senior Prom and sponsoring the Red Cross Drive. President for the fall semester was Dick Bowers, who was assisted by Seymore Hudosh as vice-president. In the spring the club was headed by Quiqui Graham and Bob Zawalski. Helpful assistance was given by Mr. McCallister, the faculty advisor.

CAFETEERS

Lads and lassies, "if merit here ye crave", the Cafeteer's Club is well able to furnish all the necessary opportunity. It is due to the smooth functioning o' this group that the high spirited clans were able to enjoy the efficient service that gives the cafeteria the comfortable conditions for which it is known. Each member strove to promote a friendly atmosphere during lunch and brunch. Every clansman greatly appreciated their assistance on the new breakfast program.

As a highlight to its own daily activities the group held a Christmas party and an annual spring banquet. Offering assistance to the members, Mr. Mortensen, the club sponsor, could be found in the cafeteria every day. Capable leadership was given by Ted Paulson throughout the year.

Glory and Their Care

KEY CLUB

One o' the most active clubs o' the Gaelic realm, the Key Club, well deserves the respect it has earned among the mony clans. This year was no exception to the club's record o' service to school and community. Activities for the year included operation of the football concessions, a project which greatly contributed to the enjoyment o' the games. Members continued their much appreciated vocational guidance program for the benefit of the clansmen. At present they are inaugurating plans for the development of a lost and found bureau.

One of the contributing factors to their high achievements was the assistance offered by their director, Mr. Miller. The Kiwanis International continued to sponsor the club and insure its smooth functoning. The winter president was Bob McDill, and John Vincent was president in the spring.

FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA

Wi' the combining o' the Commercial Club and Future Secretaries a new organization, the Future Business Leaders of America, was formed. The highlight of activities o' this group was when they joined wi' the Homemaking Department to give a fashion show for the business students. At a tea held in honor o' the graduating Seniors the spring semester officers were installed. The F.B.L.A. went to a Local Convention at Culver City High School.

Leilani Greenwood, fall president, and Mary Livingston, spring president, gave noteworthy leadership to the club. The sponsors for this organization were Mrs. Friedman, Mrs. Reed and Mr. Madwin. In the fall Karolyn Robbins served as secretary. Janace Ferguson was elected to that office in the spring. The office o' treasurer was filled by Mary Clerico in the fall, and taken o'er by Diane Youle in the spring. The objectives o' the Future Business Leaders of America are to promote an interest in business education, to stress general scholarship, and to serve the school and the community.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

The Future Teachers of America Club was newly established this year. The goals o' the club were to encourage young people to enter the teaching profession, and to cultivate the qualities essential for a guid teacher. The outstanding activity o' the group was to acquaint new students wi' Van Nuys High School. The club went to a convention at the University of Southern California and visited various teachers' colleges.

Mrs. H. Smythe and Mr. J. Whitehead, sponsors, were largely responsible for the success o' the program during the year. Fran Epinette, president in the winter semester, and Kay Fisher, president in the spring semester, missed nae opportunity to build the F.T.A. into a worthwhile organization.

WHITE CAPS

"The lovely lass of Scotia" could hae gathered knowledge from the White Caps, a group o' girls who expect to become nurses. To gain information about their chosen profession was the goal o' the girls who established this new club. Barbara Arseneau, president during the winter semester, and Pat McFarlen, who took over in the summer semester, sought the advice of Miss Altha Regester, the school nurse, in making the plans for the White Caps to have a very profitable year. The activities they planned included visits to various hospitals and attendance at meetings where they heard the experiences o' guest speakers and received counsel from the Armed Forces.

Ither officers for the winter semester were Pat McFarlen, vice-president, Lola Herrman, recording-secretary, Carol Brown, corresponding-secretary, and Joyce Dahl, treasurer. For the spring semester these offices were taken over by Carol Brown, Beverly Cook, Lola Herrman, Joyce Dahl, respectively.

During the past year as busy as Gaelic pipers were the boys o' the Van Nuys Chapter of the Future Farmers of America. They had entries in the Los Angeles County Fair, the Camp Condee Judging Contest, the P. C. A. Loan Analysis Contest, the Great Western Livestock Show, and the State Judging Contest. They were ably represented in the F. F. A. sponsored contests in public speaking, parliamentary procedure, and co-operative marketing. Pierce Field Day was attended by the group. Mr. Neilson, their director, assisted President Bud Curley, Vice-President Chuck Edwards, Secretary Jimmy Burns, and Treasurer Dave Luce in their duties. Reporter for the organization was Sandy Pierce, and the sentinel was Bruce Bickart.

Ay, Mr. Ward, sponsor for the Electrons, had a busy club on his hands. This year, they took trips to Griffith Park Planetarium, California Institute of Technology, and the Science Fair. They had entries in the Westinghouse Award Contest, and sent chemistry and physics teams to participate in the Southern California section o' a nationwide contest. Their purpose was to create interest in science and inventions. The president o' the club during the fall was Don Anderson, and the vice-president was Jerry Rowley. In the spring Harold Frohlich presided o'er the club assisted by Vice-President Karin Meeker. The Club's meetings o' both semesters were recorded by Secretary Irene Quenzler.

LOS COMPAÑEROS

To stimulate an interest in Spanish and Latin-American culture was the goal o' Los Compañeros. Sponsored by Mrs. Domínguez and Mrs. Gagné, the club planned a Christmas party, which centered around the traditional piñata. Using authentic costumes from Spain the club arranged a charming showcase display.

In the fall Los Compañeros were skillfully guided by Virginia Fredrick wi' Carla Hoffman as vice-president. Sandi Kinkella took o'er the president's chair in the spring wi' Dagne Edmondson as vice-president. This club gave an opportunity for all the clansmen to acquire an appreciation o' the contribution of Spain to the culture of the world.

LES ELITES

Every member o' the Les Elites enjoyed the delightful "Mardi Gras" party, which was one o' the mony activities held during the spring semester. Throughout the year Irene Quenzler wi' the assistance o' Andi Herzberg, girls' vice-president, and Tee Bosustow, boys' vice-president, conducted the French Club through an interim of festivities.

The purposes o' the French Club are to foster an appreciation of the French language and customs, and to promote a spirit of "camaraderie" among the members.

OPTIMATES

Wi' Carol McKanna and Lee Heyer, co-consuls during the winter semester, and Serena Eble and Ray Bernardo, co-consuls during the spring semester, and wi' the sponsorship of Mrs. Opal Brown, the Optimates had a very enjoyable year. The Roman Banquet, which was held late in the fall, was the highlight o' activities for the club. Every member who attended was attired in the traditional Roman costume. At this Banquet the first year Latin students were auctioned off as slaves to the advanced students. A feast was then served by the slaves, after which everyone danced. Anither activity the Optimates enjoyed was a club barbecue, which was held during the spring semester.

To provide the members wi' opportunities for leadership and activity was part o' the Optimates goal this year. They also awakened an interest in the culture that was once Rome, and increased the students' knowledge of ancient times in Rome.

"Bank and brae claithed in green" became the inspiration for the Art Club, sponsored by Mrs. Jean Henning. Headed by Becky Johnson in the fall and in the spring, the thirty-five members took part in mony activities. Club projects included field trips, exhibitions, an art contest for all interested students, and an auction o' student work to provide a scholarship fund.

CARTOON CLUB

Endeavoring to show the humorous side o' school life, the Cartoon Club, under the leadership of Mr. Gregory, put out the Jokers' Journal, which was incorporated with the Mirror. Also, under the sponsorship of the club was a Cartoon Assembly presented for the student body. Don Mitchell presided o'er the group in the fall, while the spring president was Bethany Feinberg.

PUBLIC ADDRESS CREW

In keeping wi' their goal o' providing school service, the Public Address Crew furnished through sound the finest in information and entertainment. As the student body profited from their efforts, so too were the members able to benefit by learning to overcome the technical difficulties involved in sound production. Among their projects during the year was the operation of the sound equipment for the noon music programs. Under the guidance of Mr. Kopp, the group undertook the control of the sound facilities at football, baseball, and basketball games, as well as at track events.

STAGE CREW

Ay, after repetition of each assembly four times, 'tis easy to see how the lads o' the Stage Crew feel that they could be stand-ins for the actors on a moment's notice. Few people realize the hours o' hard work necessary to construct a set, but every clan is aware o' the artistic and beautiful results. The deftness with which scenery was handled and lighting and sound effects were carried out was indeed amazing. Each o' the crewmen knows that the mony hours spent will serve a practical purpose in later years. Much credit is due Mr. Gates, who continued his capable sponsorship of the group.

"Go, for yoursel procure renown" through service in the Van Nuys High School usher group. Under the capable direction o' Mr. McCallister, Mr. Newman, Mr. Friedman, and Mr. Madwin, the lads were able to prove their responsibilities and efficiency. In gratitude to this organization for keeping the school assemblies orderly and well arranged, the clans and chieftains extend their thanks.

TICKET TAKERS

In the past year the Van Nuys High School Ticket Takers proved to be one o' the school service organizations most necessary to smooth functioning o' campus life. The group offered a helping hand in all school affairs requiring admittance tickets. This service they accomplished by careful checking of the validity of tickets and making sure that all students in attendance possessed the proper receipts.

Each o' the fifteen members expressed gratitude to the sponsor, Mr. Richardson, for his assistance and understanding. Student leader for the fall semester was Hank Garfield. His duties were taken o'er in the spring by Larry Nakutin.

Lochs and seas beckoned mony a doughty angler to come and try his luck a'fishing. Members o' the Sport Fishing Club sallied forth on excursions. After their return, they gathered to tell tall tales o' the day's catch. Also included in their activities was a visit to the new Occanarium in Portuguese Bend. Purposes of the club were to promote conservation and to develop a love o' the outdoors. President for the winter semester was Ronald King and in the spring, Evan Olins served in that capacity. Both were spurred on by Mr. Platner, the sponsor.

SKI CLUB

O'er the highlands and through the woodlands went the Ski Club! Winter sports enthusiasts were enthralled by the meetings where they watched movies o' the famous skiers, learned the skills and techniques necessary to their favorite activity, and told o' their own adventures in the snow. There was excitement in the air when a skiing trip to Big Pines was considered. Under the enthusiastic direction of Mr. McCaffrey, President Ed Richardson and Vice-President Denny Powers coordinated the activities in the winter. ## RACQUET SQUAD

Learning to play badminton and to interest ither students in the game were the purposes o' the Racquet Squad under the direction of Mr. Falb. President for the winter semester was Jim Donally. Joel Shaper assisted him as vice-president. The president in the spring, Jerry Rowley, and the vice-president, Don Anderson, summoned new members to the squad. Included in the activities during the year was the individual participation in the City Badminton Tournament. Entry into this contest had been the goal for some time. The rapidly growing Racquet Squad is becoming very popular with the students at Van Nuys.

CHESS CLUB

Wi' nae a crook but ay a rook the chessmen battled o'er the plane! The Chess Club in these battles with a handful of members from the court increased their skill and at the same time enjoyed the recreation. President George Soules directed the activities which included participation in the individual tourneys, interschool contests, city championship and county league matches. In the regularly held noon meetings o' the Chess Club, the students were instructed in the techniques, and a greater interest developed in this difficult and fascinating game. The club grew as rapidly as did the skill o' the members.

KNIT WITS

"Knit one, purl two" were the words chanted by the Junior and Senior Knit Wits while they worked on an afghan for the Red Cross. Ere the year was o'er, each lass was inspired by the kilts and tartans of Scotia's land to knit a gay garment for her own use. All the mysteries o' their endeavors were solved by Mrs. Van Strean, their sponsor, who encouraged their industrious efforts. Those experienced knitters, Joyce Dahl and Lynn Foulkes, furnished their assistance in the winter semester. In the spring semester, Suzanne Smith and Jane Runnels proved their capabilities as officers.

LIFE SCIENCE CLUB

Field trips to the Oceanarium and the tide pools at Point Dune, mountain and desert hikes, and an o'er-night camping trip were only a few o' the mony activities participated in by the "Strapping Youths" o' the Life Science Club. Jim Donally, fall semester president, and Jerry Rowley and Gerald Dermer, co-presidents for the spring semester, wi' the help o' Irene Quenzler, fall semester vice-president and Marion Goldman, spring semester vice-president, conducted the members in their activities this year. Mr. Falb ably supervised the club in its endeavors to learn mair in the fields o' science.

CAMERA CLUB

Glens and lochs o' the bonie valley presented rare possibilities for those interested in photography. The Camera Club, sponsored by Mr. Foster, met every ither Tuesday at lunch time to enjoy their ever popular hobby. Pictures taken by members were developed and printed in the school darkroom and analyzed by the group. This year Jim Fiedler directed the group in their activities, which included a photography contest, picture assignments and constructive criticism on the finished work by the group, and lectures about the technique of photography by the sponsor and experienced students.

PROS AND CONS

The Pros and Cons, a relatively new club, under the sponsorship o' Mr. Gennette, has done an excellent job in promoting and encouraging participation in the art o' debate. Directed in the fall and again in the spring by President Dick Faust and Vice-President Chickie Lava, the club has made great progress. Meetings were held every Thursday, during which debate topics were chosen and information gathered and organized. Debates between speakers chosen by the club were held after school every third week.

GUN CLUB

Lacking only the skirl of bagpipes, the mighty hunters o' the Van Nuys Gun Club ventured forth into the highlands. Their goals were learning o' gun care and gradual acquistition of expert marksmanship. The members related stories o' personal adventures and contributed information regarding firearms to further the club's knowledge of proper gun usage.

Included in their semester activities was the promotion of a community safety program for the purpose of understanding the use o' firearms through education. The novice gunner also learned about the different types o' guns, both modern and antique. Hunting trips were planned for the valuable personal experiences they wad render. President Wayne Tyson and Vice-President "Tex" Denton led the group sponsored by Mr. Chambers.

DO-SI-DO'S

To do-si-do in western kilts attracted mony o' the clansmen o' Van Nuys. Finding pleasure, relaxation, and treasured companionship, they swung their partners through mony an old time dance. At Christmastime the devotees o' square dancing turned their thoughts to disabled children and brought toys for them to the annual Christmas party which combined a gay atmosphere with the traditional joy o' giving. The guidance of Mrs. Moser and Mrs. Pregerson made the party a great success. Heading the winter activities was Marilyn Newbold, while Carroll Edson rallied the dancers thegither in the spring.

MAKE-UP CREW

Wi' the tint o' heather and some unique ideas, the Make-up Crew provided the glamour for school productions. Each and every member participating in this busy organization's mony activities had a special interest in theatrical makeup which inspired their work. Sincere willingness to cooperate helped to make the club sae very successful. Membership consisted o' skilled persons with Susan Hollingworth serving as president, assisted by Karen Williams as vice-president. Mr. Gennette's supervision proved quite invaluable to the members as they worked throughout the year.

Festivities o'er glen and brae were brought to mind wi' weekly publications o' the Mirror. The staff succeeded in keeping an up-to-date account o' Van Nuys High School activities. Headed by Ed Tolmas and Steve Lent, editors-in-chief, the campus paper was informative and enjoyable. Jane Whitmore, managing editor; Jay Shafran and Suzie Menrad, feature editors; and Jean Eder, business manager, assisted by Dominie Kazutoff, DeAnne Stokes and Joann Bertotti, composed the core o' the staff. The reporters worked on special assignments which covered sports, features, fashions and various community and campus happenings.

In addition to the never-ending task of editing the paper, the staff found time to attend press days held in the spring by the University of Redlands, the Los Angeles City College, the University of Southern California, and the Valley Junior College. For the first time in its history the Mirror became a member of the National School Press Association and entered in their contest.

Special commendations go to Mr. Ken Devol, the faculty sponsor, the editorial and business staffs and to the reporters for up-to-the-minute news and for the pleasure the publication brought to the student body.

CRIMSON AND GRAY

Acquaintances of auld shall ne'er be forgot because the Annual Staff kept a clear record o' the "gathering o' the clans". In the fall the selection of a Scottish theme was the first order o' the day. Then, followed innumerable jobs which contributed to the general planning of the 1955 Crimson and Gray.

Heading the staff as editor-in-chief was Bob Johnson who was assisted by the copy editor, Eugene Larson. The Athenian section was managed by Sharon Reed and Barbara Butow. Dagne Edmunson, Serena Eble, Dave Mesirow, Carla Hoffman, Charmaine Lava, Aurelia Laskey, and Lynn Willen handled the pages concerning the underclassmen and the clubs. Virginia Fredrick had charge o' the Polynesian festivities. Co-sports Editors Bob MacKenzie and Eugene Larson shared the write-ups o' the tournaments. Directing the photography was Ed Jubert. Mr. Kenyon sponsored the art staff which was headed by Bobbie Johnson, and Mr. Gregory guided Phyllis Kelin's drawing o' the cartoons.

When the first copy from the engraver and the printer's pages were returned for correction and approval, the anxiety of completing this year's book was greatly increased. The staff breathed a sigh o' relief as the final "OK" was given and the presses began to roll. Gracious thanks were extended to the business department and Mr. Foster, who was in charge o' sales. Final success, of course, is attributed to Mrs. Price for her wise and excellent guidance and to the mony people who contributed time and effort to this publication.

WINGED PEN

A traditional Van Nuys annual publication is the Winged Pen. This anthology consists o' poetry and verse written by students of school. The staff this year, under the sponsorship of Mr. Frisius, was headed by Richard Faust. John Hall and Charmaine Lava assisted in the organization of the book which presented a broad selection of serious and humorous verse that appealed to a variety of students.

Another colorful aspect o' the issue this year was the attractive illustrations throughout the pages. Responsible for these were art students Denny Powers, who was art editor, Larry Padgett and Suzie Matthews. Under the sponsorship of Mr. Gregory they made up several drawings to accompany selected poems.

Completing the work of the Winged Pen were the students in the Van Nuys High School print shop who, under the supervision of Mr. Chambers, set up and printed the booklet.

Bonie lassies o' the Girls' Glee Club had a busy year. Their first fall appearance was on K.F.I.'s "Young America Sings." Next event was the presentation o' familiar carols for the P.T.A. and the school. They closed the semester by taking part in the Vesper program for the Imperials o' W'55. During the spring season the girls joined the Boys' Glee Club in welcoming the participants in the Southern California Glee Club Festival which was held in the auditorium. In another regional contest they contended for honors against neighboring schools. The lasses gained superior ratings in these events. The season was terminated with their participation in the Spring Sing, a program of popular music. Congratulations belong to the girls, their accompanists, and their director, Mrs. Ruth Kautzenbach.

VAN NUYS HIGH SCHOOL ORCHESTRA

Bagpipes may be traditional, but none could ye find in the Van Nuys High School orchestra! This did not disappoint mony people because of the fine blend o' the strings, woodwinds and brasses which combined to give music that was harmoniously tuneful without pipes.

The orchestra this year made appearances at the W'55 Senior Play and graduation exercises, and also gave a sterling performance in its fourth Annual Winter Concert. The city and state orchestra festivals awarded the group superior ratings. A series o' Pop Concerts became the highlight of the year. Selected musicians from the orchestra participated in a chamber music festival for which they were praised. The clans applauded Mr. Seymour Weinstein, director, and the orchestra for their splendid music.

VANNETTES

Twelve harmonious voices from the Girls' Glee Club made up the Vannettes, who, under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Kautzenbach, had a triumphant year. They started their performances on the Girls' Glee Club broadcast at K.F.I. This was followed by rendering an evening's entertainment for the veterans at Sawtelle Hospital; by furnishing musical arrangements for the Commercial Department's Fashion Show; and by presenting selections for Vespers. Continuing this busy schedule in the spring they participated in a program presented for the P.T.A., in two local glee club festivals and in the Spring Sing.

The lasses gave mony delightful musical hours, not only to the appreciative clans but to the public as well. The Highlands and Lowlands rang out in commendation.

VAN NUYS HIGH SCHOOL BAND

Mony a canty day the band has drilled thegither. Under the direction of Mr. Seymour Weinstein, they appeared in their new crimson and gray uniforms at the football games at Van Nuys High, as well as at the Bethlehem Bowl game between Valley Junior College and Long Beach City College. Appearances at the television show, "Today", at the Bethlehem Star Parade, and at the All-City Band Festival kept this prominent music group busy entertaining and winning supreme honors for their school. Van Nuys High is justly proud of them.

LOBOS

Under the direction o' Mr. Anson Depue were the Lobos, twelve select male vocalists of the Boys' Glee Club, who began the year by participating in a K.F.I. broadcast. Entertainment for a congregational dinner at the First Methodist Church of Van Nuys and for the Christmas program followed this. Supplying melodious expressions o' harmony at the Creative Writing Teacher's Institute meeting, at a dinner concert for the Malibu Lake Mountain Club, at the Glee Club Festival and at the Spring Sing completed an especially favorable season.

RESERVE OFFICERS TRAINING CORPS

Famed are the rugged military forces o' old Scotland, and proud are the people o' its gallant fighting men. Van Nuys High School gives equal and well-deserved honor to its Reserve Officers Training Corps. The Van Nuys Corps has won the American Legion Blue Devils' Competition seven times, and has also captured the British United Services' award. This year there were two week-end training periods for the Corps at Fort MacArthur. The Federal Inspection held at Van Nuys this year gave the unit superior rating.

The Corps' competent instructor for this year was Master Sergeant James L. Taylor, aided by Captain Robert Boff, Assistant P.M.S. & T. for this area. For the fall semester the unit was led by Cadet Lt. Col. Jerry Brenizer. Assisting him was Cadet Captain Ted Paulson, adjutant, and Cadet Major Merrit Walls, executive officer. Spring semester officers were Cadet Lt. Col. Merrit Walls, assisted by Cadet Major Ted Paulson, executive officer, and Cadet Captain Jon Fuller, adjutant.

W'55 SENIOR PLAY

Jean Kerr's delightful comedy, Jenny Kissed Me, was presented this year by the Drama Department, under the able direction of Miss McMillan. It is the story of a young girl named Jenny (Carol McKanna, Mary Ann Nicholai), who was taken into a Catholic rectory to live with her aunt, Mrs. Deazy, the housekeeper (Carmen Azar). Father Moynihan, the priest (Larry Shuttleworth), at first was against a teenager living in the rectory, but when he found out that Jenny was a quiet prim girl he welcomed her presence. Michael Saunders (Bob Baker, Jim Stewart), a young bachelor, fell in love with Jenny. When he said that Jenny wasn't the popular type of girl, Father Moynihan stepped in and proceeded to "doll up" Jenny. Before anyone could say much, the Father practically had her married to a young college boy. When Michael learned of the Father's meddling, he believed his chances of marrying Jenny were lost. But all things ended happily when Jenny admitted her love for Michael and they were married.

Also taking part in the cast were Linda Miller, Doris Bolas, Elaine Fisher, Marchene Nielsen, Mary Bruner, Andi Herzberg, Jeanene Griffith, Ronnie Bast, Merrilyn McCranie, Dolly McFarlin, Penny Cutting, Don Wallace, Dick Tullar, and Gary Huffaker. Student direction was done by Gary Bryant, and Bob Brown was in charge of stage management. Everyone's appreciation was evidenced by the gracious applause.

S'55 SENIOR PLAY

Distinctive from previous presentations, Family Portrait by Lenore Coffee and William Joyce Cowen took its place this year among the line of successful plays given by the Drama Department. The story of the play depicted the last three years of the life of Christ as His family watched His rise and decline in popular acclaim.

Starring in the leading role of Mary were Carmen Azar and Linda Miller. Playing Mary's sister-in-law, Mary Cleophas, were Carolyn Carr and Dolly McFarlin. Jim Stewart played James, and Bob Baker, Joseph. In the serious role of Mary Magdalen were Fran Epinette and Barbara Lieberman. Others included in the cast were Ronnie Bast, Rick Pearce, Bob Brown, Mary Heacock, Renee Haddad, Charmaine Lava, Ken Orchard, Bob Lockwood, Chuck Bell, Peter Bray, Nona Del Giorno, Carol McKanna, Jo Ann Olson, Jay Fever, Gary Huffaker and Tony Russo.

The unique staging and directing was due to the combined efforts of Mrs. Henning and Miss McMillan. Barbara Lieberman and Pete Bray acted as student director and stage manager, respectively.

ASSEMBLIES

Ay, bonie Scotchmen wi' a min' for talent presented assemblies which were awaited wi' eager anticipation and will be long remembered.

At the beginning o' each semester the Board of Control presented an Hello Assembly, in which members o' the board were cleverly introduced to the student body. The traditional Exchange Assembly, held in the fall semester, was a program of the combined talents from all the Valley League schools. A' the start of each sports season the various teams and coaches were introduced to the student body in an outdoor rally.

The formal recognition o' the new student body officers was given a' the Installation assemblies, when the officers were pledged to carry out the duties o' their offices faithfully. The Awards assemblies at the end of each semester honored the outstanding seniors o' the Imperial and Athenian clans by presenting them wi' various tokens for achievement.

Dramtic productions of the Radio Speech Classes were presented at Thanksgiving and Easter, and a musical program at Christmas. Each presentation became a highlight in a year of fine assemblies.

Presentation o' the Highland Flings was in charge o' the Dance Committee. Under the direction o' Camille Scortino, fall president, and Judy Segar, spring president, and sponsored by Mr. Charles Ham, the Committee strove to make each dance better than the last. Vice-presidents for each semester were Cricket Langford and DeAnne Stokes. Secretaries were Pat Flannery, Helene Nessamar and Judy Segar. Judy Jordahl and Don Hunter were elected to the office of treasurer.

Gala spirit welcomed the B10's each semester with a traditional Van Nuys Hello Dance. Ither dances which highlighted the year were the Christmas Dance, the Recognition Day Dances and the Activity Day Dances. The Aloha Dances served to bid farewell to the graduating seniors.

FREEDOMS FOUNDATION

Through daily practice o'er mony years Scottish folk o' Highland and Lowland developed a sincere pride in their traditional beliefs. By a similarly continuing performance Van Nuys High School instills a sense o' democracy and freedom in its training toward truth and scholarship. For this policy the school was awarded the George Washington Honor Medal by the Freedoms Foundation. Annual announcement o' successful contestants is made at Valley Forge on Washington's Birthday. Considered for the awards are the contributions o' educational institutions, business and civic organizations, as well as those of private citizens throughout the country. Honors are bestowed for various programs planned to create a better understanding o' the American way o' life.

Phyllis Kelin

Van Nuys was proud to hae two winners o' Gold Keys in the ninth Annual Scholastic Art Contest. Rowena Blincoe won two awards for life drawings, one a pastel, the ither in ink. Phyllis Kelin received hers for an originally designed and skillfully executed enamel on copper mosaic.

Rowena Blincoe

In a written examination which tested the homemaking knowledge and attitudes o' senior girls throughout California, Jean Eder, the Van Nuys Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow, received the highest score. She journeyed to Washington to compete for the title o' All-American Homemaker o' Tomorrow.

Faye Pollock

First place in a city-wide essay contest discussing "a decade o' progress in employing the physically handicapped" was awarded to Faye Pollock. Three ither Van Nuys high school students placed in the competition — John Klein, second; Tom Sawyer, sixth; and Dick Nelson, seventh.

Through the centuries the Polynesians have been known for their commendable traditions, therefore their name was adopted by the clan o' W'56. The modern Polynesians o' Van Nuys through their activities hae shown themsels worthy o' the inheritance o' the Islanders' traditions. President Dick Bowers rallied the Polynesian clan for mony festivities o' the year. The first clan activity was the A11 dance with Dick Bowers and Mary Heacock reigning as King and Queen. During the spring "clean grounds" was the slogan heard everywhere 'round the glen, when, wi' the help o' the student body, the Polynesians undertook to keep the grounds spic and span. After displaying their strikingly colorful sweaters at the first track meet with Birmingham, they were honored at the Recognition Day Dance, which started the whirl o' their social activities as newly recognized seniors.

VARSITY LETTERMEN

Each member o' the Lettermen's Club is a proud possessor o' a crimson and gray letter won as a result o' successful participation on an athletic team. This letter means as much to the athlete as the tartan means to the Scot. It speaks o' hours o' intensive work and signifies proficiency in one or mair o' the numerous athletic activities offered by the school.

Mr. Reg Anderson, faculty adviser, guided the athletes in their activities, which included sponsorship o' the semi-annual Installation Banquet, the yearly spring Decathalon, and ither parties honoring all lettermen.

Assisting Mr. Anderson in the fall was Ray Paolucci, president; Don Katz, secretary-treasurer; and Jim Dawson, who served as sergeant-at-arms. Officers for the spring were Ray Hall, president; Don Katz, secretary-treasurer; and Ray Mauss, sergeant-at-arms.

JUNIOR LETTERMEN'S CLUB

The Junior Lettermen's club is composed o' boys who hae received a J.V., Bee, or Cee Letter in one o' the numerous athletic fields at Van Nuys High School. They were sponsored during the past year by Winston Tucker and William Ford, who encouraged the boys in their activities. Members o' the Junior Lettermen's Club are staunch supporters o' all athletic activities at Van Nuys. They lend enthusiastic aid to all sports events and give willing cooperation.

GIRLS' DRILL TEAM

Scotia's beauty was reviewed at the night football games when the Girls' Drill Team, gaily attired in white blouses and red skirts, paraded and drilled through a maze o' complicated maneuvers during the half time activities. So delightful was the spectacle they afforded that it brought forth a storm of applause from the spectators.

Student leaders o' the Drill Team were Lani Greenwood and Susan Matthews. Faculty members who directed and supervised the girls were Miss Shaw and her assistant, Miss Taylor. They, as well as all the girls on the team, deserve great credit for the perfection of the drills at each game. Van Nuys High School is justly proud o' its bonie Drill Team.

V.N. VS. HOLLYWOOD

Opening league play the 1954 Van Nuys Football Team met the Sheiks of Hollywood High and won a bitterly contested battle. Hollywood drew first blood, but missed the P.A.T. and hence gained a 6-0 lead which was maintained until the second half. The opening kick-off of the third period was taken by the All-Valley candidate of Van Nuys, Ron Lachman, and run back 92 yds. to score the first T.D. for the Crimson and Gray contestants. Jim Dawson tallied once more, and the game ended in an initial league win for Coach Tucker's ball club.

Final V.N. 13 H. 6

V.N. VS. NORTH HOLLYWOOD

Eyeing the Valley Crown, the Lobos tangled with a powerful North Hollywood team and were soundly trounced. In the first two periods the Huskies scored 13 points to lead Van Nuys 13-0 at the half. The third twelve minutes produced two more touchdowns as the Wolves again went scoreless. Early in the fourth quarter Quarterback John MacAdams threw a short pass to Lachman who sprinted 82 yds. to post the Wolves' lone tally. North Hollywood promptly retaliated with another "Paydirt Play", which ended the game and Van Nuys' hopes for a perfect league record.

Final V.N. 6 N.H. 34

V.N. VS. CANOGA PARK

Eagerly seeking their second straight conquest, a highly spirited Van Nuys team took the field against Canoga Park. Action came fast. With less than nine minutes of play gone in the first period, Ray Paolucci recovered a Canoga fumble on the Hunters' ten yd. line. Ending a fast series of plays the Wolf fullback, Bob King, crashed into the end zone to score. In the remaining three quarters it was a battle of defenses. Neither team was rung up on the scoreboard for the rest of the game and the contest ended with Van Nuys on the long end of the score. The Wolves were on the way!

V.N. VS. SAN FERNANDO

Six thousand fans watched Van Nuys' championship hopes vanish as the Wolves were mauled by the Tigers. The defending champs scored 7 times, while the Lobos posted only 19 points. The action started when Bob Smith scored on an 89 yd. gallop from scrimmage. However, San Fernando retaliated four times in rapid succession. Van Nuys had moments of glory when Halfback Ron Lachman gathered in a Ted Marmor pass and sprinted 87 yds. for another score. He took a kickoff in the last quarter and went 96 yds. with a key block by Dick Bowers.

League Heroes

Ay, the Van Nuys Bee Football squad romped through the season in traditional Gaelic fashion by nae losing a game, and grabbing the Valley League Championship. Piloting them through their perfect season was Coach John McCaffrey, ably assisted by Line Coach Jim McConnaughy.

Co-Captains Terry Matula and Jerry Duncan led the team to decisive victories in the three practice games — Burroughs, 12-6; Verdugo Hills, 34-19; University, 7-0. The first league tilt was a tie game with Hollywood High, 7-7. Then, as the season progressed, one by one the opposing teams fell in defeat before the rugged defense and charging offense of the Van Nuys squad. The first to fall before the onslaught was Birmingham, 12-0. Canoga Park was vanquished next to the tune of 13-6. North Hollywood then fell, 7-0; and in the final game of the season the team piled up a score of 27-12 against San Fernando. A fitting climax to a perfect season!

Duncan was named Valley League Player of the Year. Cliff Itomitsu, Denny Powers, and Jim McClurkin were also named on the first team.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

In spite o' the fact that Hollywood's usual fine team, plus the improvement of North Hollywood and San Fernando o'er last year made the going rough, the Van Nuys Varsity Basketball Team had a guid season. These teams gave the Wolf Quintet the most trouble. The team, very ably guided and supervised again this year by Coach Waymon Shofstall, finished in fourth place wi' a record o' two wins and six losses.

The cage season started slowly for the Wolves. They lost their first two practice games — to Fairfax, 60-39, and to Fremont, 68-35. But Van Nuys got on the winning track by taking their next three practice games — from Hamilton, 54-46, and two from Notre Dame, 48-25, and 54-45.

In the first league contest Van Nuys traveled to Hollywood, only to be humbled by the Sheiks, 70-43. The next game was played at home where the Wolves triumphed o'er Canoga Park, 55-40. In one o' the best games of the season a very fine North Hollywood club edged the Wolves in an overtime period on the winners' floor, 64-63. The Lobos ended the first round by bowing to San Fernando, 58-45, at Van Nuys.

In the second round Hollywood sneaked by the Wolves, 57-51, on the Lobos' court. The Wolves then disposed o' Canoga Park on the losers' floor, 46-39. Van Nuys next lost anither close game to North Hollywood in the Wolves' gym, 46-43. The Wolf Quintet ended the season by traveling to San Fernando, where they were defeated, 64-44.

Van Nuys was led during the 1954-55 season by Co-Captains Jerry Quintana and Gary Shair, along with other regulars, Gary Huffaker, Leroy Keller, Steve Mezger, Mike Mulholland, Gary Rose, and Pete Swanson. Eddie Auxier, Jim Dunn, Ron Mertus, Gary Miller, and Marv Schuloff also gave fine performances when called upon. Although they did nae win the League Championship, the Wolf cagers gave a guid account o' themsels on the basketball court, both from the standpoint of ability and of sportsmanship.

J.V. BASKETBALL

Echoing across the glens and braes were the cheers for the Junior Varsity Basketball Team. The brawny lads enjoyed a good season, wi' a six win and four loss record. Tri-captains Bob Sipes, John Atherton and Earl Schneider spurred the team on through the hotly contested conflicts. Ither top men of Coach Shofstalls' Battling Wolves were Frank Branda, Dick Peters, Ron D'Arsay and Spike Burnam, who turned in consistently fine performances throughout every action packed quarter. The bench reserve o' the team eagerly participated in the action whenever called upon. Working out in the gym after school to perfect the fine points o' the game paid off as witnessed by the following scores:

GIBSON, GENTIS, RENFREW, OATEY GO STRUTTING BY!

Running the Straight-ways,

The Scotch harriers from Van Nuys High School, though nae winning the Valley League Championship in any o' the three divisions, set a fine example o' sportsmanship. This year, in order to set a course record, all the league meets, as well as the Valley Finals were held at Pierce Junior College.

The Varsity team was paced by Terry Gibson, Rick Gentis, Dave Renfrew and Dave Oatey. The J.V. team was led by Ken Brown, Jim Donally, Don Baker, and Gordon Chapman. The 10th Grade Team was built around Stuart Kaplan, Jerry Sheedy, Melvin Thompson, and Stanley Kaufman. The Varsity finished the season by winning one meet and losing four. In the City Finals held at U.C.L.A., Gibson placed sixteenth among all the runners in the city o' Los Angeles. The J.V. Team from Van Nuys placed ninth among the schools in the city.

Golf was originally a Scottish game o' great antiquity, for it dates back to 1457. Although it had its early beginning in Scotland, it did nae become a ranking sport at Van Nuys High School until this year.

The golfers were under the supervision o' Coaches Reg Anderson and Jack McClintock. The team was composed o' several top-flight golfers. Among them were Hector Flores, George Barnes, Jerry Lauch, Gary Rose, Jim Follingstad, Norm Hoose, and John Floyd. The boys practiced at the Sepulveda and Woodland Hills courses. During the season they played the other teams o' the San Fernando Valley League.

Ye were nae surprised to spy the Van Nuys Gym Team rounding out the season wi' the city finals at Venice and capturing second place in Valley League standing. Suffering from the loss o' three o' last year's championship team stars, the Wolf musclemen, none the less, showed superior power by running up a fine record. Top men for Coach Barney Quinn's team were Greg McElrone on the rope; Larry Nanney in the free exercise; Bob Ponticelli on the rings; and Bill Bromley competing in the tumbling event. Displaying his worth on the side horse was John Sewell; giving outstanding performances on the parallel bars was Dick Winans. Ither star Lobos were Wes Johnson in the long horse competition and Chuck Edwards on the high bar. Thanks are due Mr. Quinn who did a marvelous job o' training and conditioning the boys, and without whose coaching the team could ne'er have reached the height to which they climbed.

VARSITY TRACK

Wi' five returning lettermen and two new coaches the Varsity Track Team were nae bad at the start o' the season. Coaches Jim McConnaughy and Giles Godfrey were added to Coach Ted Starr's staff this year and did much to train and assist the boys throughout the season. Included in the 200 would-be stars, who turned out at the beginning o' the season, were sprinters Don George and Cameron Avery, hurdler Don Dennis, pole vaulter Ray Hall, and 440 man Dick Darr. All were returning lettermen from last year. Also winning the plaudits o' mony were two Bee lettermen, hurdler Ray Mauss and shot putter Dick Bowers.

When the regular season rolled around all preliminary work paid off in large dividends. Performing outstandingly in the individual events were Don George in the 100 yd. dash, Dick Darr in the 440, Jerry Quintana and Jerry Carlin in the 880, Terry Gibson in the mile, and Don Dennis in the hurdles. Field events were the cause o' mony a tense and exciting moment throughout the meets. In pole vaulting Ray Hall proved his capability by vaulting 12′6″. The broad jump in which Don George and Walt Reynolds excelled was a scene o' tense activity. High jumping proved the area o' glory for Dave Pack, while Dick Bowers showed the way for the shotputters.

Beginning their conquest at Burbank, the Wolves came out 56-48 victors. Filmland was the next stop for the Lobo Local, where Van Nuys crushed Hollywood, 74 1/3 to 29 2/3. Still building up steam the lads visited Birmingham and slaughtered the Braves 90-14. Getting sidetracked by Canoga, the Varsity Spikesters suffered their first defeat 44 to 59. North Hollywood set a barrier across the tracks stopping Van Nuys 65 1/3 to 38 2/3. Coming to the end of the line with a win over San Fernando, 53½-50½, the season was considered fairly successful by all.

BEE TRACK

As Scotland had its Highland games, containing exhibitions o' running, vaulting, and jumping; so Van Nuys High School has its track and field events. The Class Bee Track had Fred Mondragon in the sprints, the 100 and 220. In the 660 Gary Miller led the pack. The 1320 found Dave Sturges in front. The pole vault stars were Denny Powers and Dave Skersick. The first man in the broad jump was Tony Schaefer, and Denny Imbach was top man in the high jump. The shot-put list was headed by Dick Bergquist and D. Powers.

This year the medium size spikers won the Valley League Crown by stopping every opponent in dual meet competition. They defeated Burbank, 61½-33½; Hollywood, 49½-45½; Birmingham, 78-17; Canoga Park, 54½-40½; North Hollywood, 63 1/3-31 1/3; and San Fernando, 58-34. In the Valley Finals the Wolves finished first with 50 7/10 points.

CEE TRACK

Boys o' Scotia are enthusiastic trackmen, but none mair spirited than the Van Nuys High Cee Track Team. Their comparatively small stature and lighter weight hindered them nae at all in coming out on top in various events. Ably supervised and guided by Coaches Ted Starr, Jim McConnaughy, and Giles Godfrey, the Cee spikers finished the season with 3 meets won and 3 lost. Anchoring the Cees this year were John Laverty in the 100, Ron Gilbert in the 180, Rick Gentis in the 660, Mike Smith and John Meyers in the high jump, Roger Buhrer in the broad jump, Bob Greenberg in the hurdles, Ty Roberts in the shot put, and M. Smith in the pole vault.

In the Valley Finals held after meets against Burbank, 43-34; Hollywood, 30 1/3-46 2/3; Birmingham, 40-37; Canoga Park, 16½-60½; North Hollywood, 40 5/6-36 1/6; and San Fernando, 38-39, the Wolves wound up third.

Active Scots having a knack wi' a racquet joined on the courts to prove their skill on the Tennis Team. Under the coaching o' Mr. John McCaffrey, the "fuzzy ball" team captured 3rd place in the Valley League. Captain Mark Rosen was ably assisted by Cliff Itomitsu, Steve Mezger, John Daigneault, and Bob Merkow in singles competition and by doubles players Bob Graham and Jim Dunn, Dave Koff and Dick Stuman. Conditioning early in the spring wi' three weeks o' vigorous calisthenics, the squad was ready for the practice matches with Notre Dame, Loyola, and John Burroughs. In the first league match, Van Nuys scored 5 to 2 against Birmingham. The conflict with North Hollywood was next on the tab, with the Lobos scoring 1 to the Huskies' 6. Wi' two games down and three to go, the Wolves scored 2 to 5 against Hollywood, and 7 to 0 against Canoga Park. Finally Van Nuys earned 7 to San Fernando's 0. Each game illustrated Van Nuys' skill. # A-Splashing in the Loch

Scotland's rocky shores and inlets, its beautiful Loch Lomond, and its winding rivers nae doubt have produced their share o' the world's great swimmers. In like manner the Pacific's sunny blue waters, California's cold mountain lakes, and San Fernando Valley's numerous swimming pools hae given to Van Nuys High School swimmers who compare favorably with the best.

The Van Nuys swimming team had a full schedule this year, and much o' the credit for its success must go to Coach Waymon Shofstall for his direction o' the boys and mony hours spent working wi' them. This was the fifth year of swimming as a sport at Van Nuys. The team now has developed considerable coordination in both swimming and diving.

The Braw Nine

VARSITY BASEBALL

The skirl o' bagpipes heralded the 1955 edition o' the Van Nuys Varsity Baseball Team, who were ready to take on all comers as they started the season early in March. Protecting a three year Valley League championship and out to make it four in a row was the goal the Varsity Horsehiders set for themsels. Wi' five of the men on the squad returning lettermen from last year's team and 15 more up from the Championship J. V. gang, the odds looked good on a repeat performance.

At the start o' the season the lineup began wi' Ron Mertus, Mike Sherman, Gary Lane, and Bill Davidson hurling. The bases were covered by Marvin Schulhof on first, Frank Rossi on second, Loren Luna and Len Ettinger on third. Terry Matula tightened the infield at short stop. Outfielders were, John Von Kampen, Ron D'Arcy, Seymore Hudosh, Norman West and Pete Laird. Catchers Bill Warren and Ron Lerner guarded the homeplate.

Bill Ford did an able job o' coaching the boys and instilling the spirit o' drive and determination which creates a championship team.

Slugging their way through the season and tying for first place in Valley competition, Van Nuys came out winning two games from Hollywood, San Fernando, Canoga Park and Birmingham, and splitting with North Hollywood.

J. V. BASEBALL

1955 found the brisk and bauld Van Nuys Junior Varsity Baseball Team had a Valley League championship crown to protect, in as much as the group had won the title two years running and were now seeking to make it three. Reporting to the spring practice sessions were returning lettermen from the previous year's squad. Hopes were high that history wad repeat itself.

The season line-up showed Wally McPheeters and Hal Griffin pitching, Don Appleton and Tom O'Leary covering first base, Paul Leibowitz and Bill Ford competing for second sack, while Dennis Hyman, Jon Gardner and Bob Styles played shortstop, and Jeff Flaum took o'er third base. Performing behind the plate were Dennis Martin and Joe Botama. Don Burr and Ron Kramer held down right field position, as Ken Padgham and Mike Gaston took o'er in center, Denny Imbach and Jim Blosser held down the left grassplot. Wally McPheeters acted as helmsman for the squad in the capacity o' captain. As well as showing considerable skill and ability, the boys produced a lot o' hustle and sparkling play as the result o' the effort o' Coach Winston Tucker. As in the Highland games o' auld the J. V.'s have won the admiration o' the student fans.

Completing the round o' games the Junior Varsity lost two games to Canoga Park, won two from San Fernando and Birmingham, and split with North Hollywood and Hollywood, which gave them third place in the league.

Under the cantie leadership o' Presidents Sue Mathers and Shari Nutt and assisted by Miss Corkhill, their helpful sponsor, the G.A.A. Board planned mony varied activities. The Board is elected each semester by the members of the association. They organize the different sports and functions o' the Girls' Athletic Association. At the first of each term a rally is held to introduce the officers and tell the girls o' the fun and good times in store for them. The Board was very active in presenting Hawaiian Holiday, which was the Play Day that was held at Van Nuys this year.

As all good things must come to a close so must the G.A.A. season, but not without the Spread at which the Board performs a skit to present the newly elected officers. The G.A.A. Board ends each semester with the hope o' having provided recreation and enjoyment for the girls o' Van Nuys High.

The two lads inquired about getting one with a Scotch plaid paint job. The kindly salesman smiled patiently and replied that he wad see what could be done.

Buying for a party the boniest flowers in all the land were Jolene Marsden and Kay Machado at HILO FLOWERS, 6157 Van Nuys Blvd. Wi' the florist's help, they chose the favorite of the hostess. At HILO you can find many assortments of flower arrangements, corsages, and wreaths for every occasion.

Preparing to take a trial run in the '55 Ford at WRAY BROTHERS, 6115 Van Nuys Blvd., were Serena Eble and Mary Lou Cozad. Finding the new models in treasured tones o' the rainbow and in tip-top shape, the two lasses looked mournfully at their rickety old jalopy parked outside.

A'washing your clothes till they're sparkling clean with all the machines and dryers just like those at home is the HOMEWAY LAUNDRY, located at 14401 Calvert Street. Here Carol Bergamo and Judy Brewer hae brought their prettiest frocks to be kept pert and sassy for their favorite beaux.

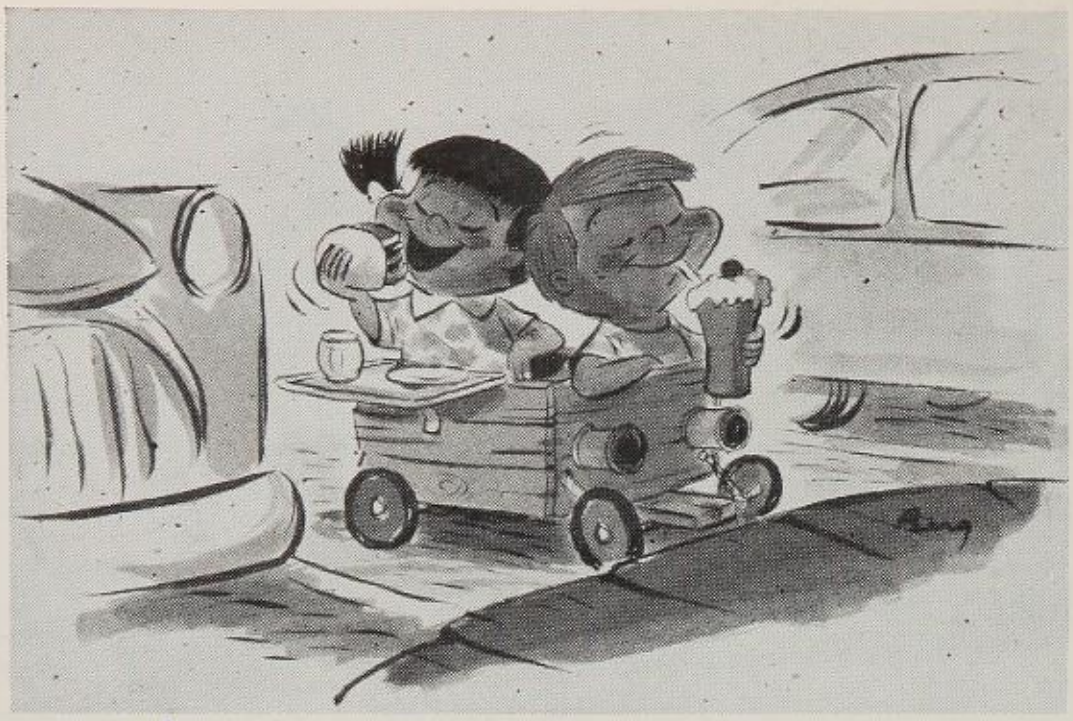
Familiar to the eyes of loyal clansmen is the smiling faced, perennial camera carrying, Mr. Grant Lippert, photographer extraordinaire, of GRANT STUDIO, 14517 Victory Blvd. Modern portraiture and commercial photography coupled with excellent printing and quick delivery have earned this studio an everlasting reputation for being the finest.

At HAY'S CAMERA SUPPLY, 6527 Van Nuys Blvd., Stella Chorovich and Vicki Brown bought film and flashbulbs for the big party. They knew they could find the best equipment for pictures, so that later they could reminisce o'er the fun and remember the antics o' the guests.

Wishing they could spend mony a canty day driving a new car, Virginia Frederick and Dagne Edmondson admired the new "Olds" at CENTURY OLDSMOBILE COMPANY, 6001 Van Nuys Blvd. Wi' modern styling and striking hues, the Oldsmobile was chosen and driven by the members of all clans.

A'spying the boniest garments for school, party and casual wear, Sandra Schorr and Lynn Borland looked on as one of the dresses from JULIA'S WOMEN'S FASHIONS, 13614 Ventura Blvd., was shown to them. These two style conscious lasses went to JULIA'S for the excellent selections offered.

To keep the clothes of the Van Nuys clansmen spic and span is the goal of BUTLER CLEANERS, 5905 Van Nuys Blvd. Bob Knight was seen there a'holding his kilts and tartans so he could gather wi' the rest o' the lads and lassies for the big affair at school.



"True Love"

To my root for me next year — see you next year

Love always

See ya' at... Bobs'

● HOME OF THE BIG BOY HAMBURGER

"I'll have a Big Boy" are the passwords at BOB'S, 5355 Van Nuys Blvd. This is where the gathering o' the clans is the heaviest, and the lads and lasses enjoy good food and service almost around the clock. After a winter football or summer baseball game, the clansmen gather at BOB'S to pledge themselves to cheering the team.

At "BONES" HAMILTON BUICK, 5747 Van Nuys Blvd., Ed Jubert looked on as one of the skilled mechanics showed him how to repair his car. Not only does HAMILTON sell the up-to-date Buick, wi' its smart modern styling, but it also gives expert service to any car, whether the model be old or new.

Mony a stitch is set at CRITERION LETTERS AND SWEATERS, 4507 Van Nuys Blvd., when class sweaters are in the making. Secretive work is carried on so the sweater color remains unknown. CRITERION also makes sweaters for various clubs and organizations at Van Nuys. Here, Bob Knight exhibited his jacket.

Amidst the flowering prints and other intriguing designs plus the variety of colors and fabrics, Bev Roberts and Marcia Claberg admired their favorite blouse of the large collection at A. MELLER LADIES WEAR, 14568 Ventura Blvd. Any style or material a lovely lass desires is ready and waiting for her inspection.

Ay, 'tis the luxurious car that's found at CASA de CADILLAC, 14401 Ventura Blvd. It seems that Sharon Reed was the lucky one, ready for a spin, while Bob MacKenzie, Barbara Butow, and Bob Johnson looked on and wished they could be in the driver's seat, too. The showroom displays old as well as new Cadillacs to demonstrate the car's progress.

Not only is BUTLER BROTHERS DEPARTMENT STORE, 6609 Van Nuys Blvd., noted for fashions, but also for the excellence and dependability of their sports equipment. All the clans' sport enthusiasts look to BUTLER'S for their needs. Hershel Aron, Cleve Canaday, and Bill Francis considered the quality goods while selecting something for their activities.

Farewell

To Sally

Since the B-10 we have had many good times together. You have been my best and truest friend I have ever had. I have enjoyed the Times I was up at your house because your family made me feel as if I were one of them. And your dog is the craziest she has something I think I will ever have much good luck I wish for you, but I know we will be friends then ever before. I hope that we be so close. I know we will. Sally I can will be yours because you are a reallswell person. I know you have fun over the summer and I promise to call you at least once a week and maybe I will see you in summer school. Well kiddo I guess I've said enough achieve; a college education. I am really jealous. Remember the time in Mr Moores class when Freddy threw a book and hit me in the head; well I know that was it, that was the start of you and Freddy. since then we have become closer friends then ever before. I hope that we will continue to be so close. I know we will. Sally I can't tell you how much good luck I wish for you, but I know it will be yours because you are a reallswell person. I know you have fun over the summer and I promise to call you at least once a week and maybe I will see you in summer school. Well kiddo I guess I've said enough

Sincerely
Linda
